

500 Pirc Miniatures

Bill Wall

$6.00

Bill Wall continues his very popular miniatures series with this collection of games in the Pirc Defense ending in twenty five or fewer moves. There are games by everyone from World Champions and Grandmasters to woodpushers, but games by masters predominate. These miniature collections are excellent for studying the importance of tactical threats and proper defenses against them. Best of all, playing through the games is pure entertainment.

INTRODUCTION

The Pirc Defense (1.e4 d6 2.d4 Nf6 and 3...g6) and Robatsch or Modern Defense (1.e4 g6) has become very popular lately among Grandmasters and amateurs alike. Many new lines for both White and Black have been discovered in this sharp hypermodern opening. Theoretical lines with new ideas are constantly being tried in tournament play. This aggressive opening can be very tactical, leading to many short games if one is not careful.

The Pirc and Modern defenses developed relatively late in tournament play. It was considered unsound and incorrect to give up the center after 1.e4. Vasja Pirc (1907-1980) of Yugoslavia revived the once dubious defense in the 1940s. The Russian master Anatoly Ufimtsev (1914-) had been publishing analysis of the defense in numerous chess journals since the 1930s. The defense is sometimes known as the Ufimtsev Defense. Karl Robatsch (1928-) contributed his ideas to the defense by delaying Black's Nf6 move. Today the defense has become a strong alternative reply to 1.e4 with many top Grandmasters adding this defense to their repertoire.

This collection of 500 games deals with the many traps and pitfalls of the Pirc and Modern Defense. The collection of short games represents play from the best grandmasters of chess to the average club players. Most of the games are over in less than 20 moves. Some of the games are from correspondence play while others come from over-the-board tournaments. All of the games are meant to be a collection of instructive entertainment for you to enjoy..
